

Church Missions House
Fourth Avenue, and Twenty-second Street, New York.

Woman's Auxiliary, April 7, 1916.

My dear Bishop Lloyd,

It is forty years ago this month that I was chosen Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary. That is a long time to have held the position, and I feel that it is due to the Board and to the women of the Church that I should give up the office, so that it may be placed in other hands.

Of course you know ^{this service} ~~it~~ has been a pleasure to me ~~to~~ ~~serve~~ ~~in this way~~. I am well and strong, and if there is any other way in which I can still ~~serve~~ ^{serve} the Church in connection with the Board or the Auxiliary, I shall be glad to do so.

With very many thanks for the unvarying friendship and kindness that have been shown me, believe me.

Yours very sincerely,
Julia C. Avery